

Phone conversation with your friend (at least 1 min long for each conversation)

1. You are calling Ye Laoshi around 3:30 pm, asking her to help you do the homework. Ye laoshi can help you in her office during Hour 5 the next day.
2. Your friend is calling you to go watch movie during the weekend. You wanna go with her very much. But there is an English test next Monday. Plus you have a lot of homework for English class. So you cannot go. You two set up a time to watch the movie after the test.
3. Last Thursday, your friend call you to ask you whether you wanna go dancing. You told him/her, you wanna to go with her/him. But you already agree to go with your best friend.
